

WISCONSIN MATHEMATICS COUNCIL MEMBER COMMUNICATION POLICY

The Council will communicate with its members via the journal, newsletter, mailings, website, social media and email blast. All communication should further mathematics education, and should not be used for commercial gains.

The President shall approve all member communication, and should coordinate the various forms of communication. The President should consult with the Executive Council and/or the Board when necessary.